RED FLAGS

THAT AN EMAIL IS NOT LEGIT

TALLGRASSTITLEKS.COM

GRAMMAR ERRORS

The message contains grammar and punctuation errors. A lot of emails come from scammers in foreign countries. If the copy doesn't make sense, don't follow instructions.

SENDING EMAIL ADDRESS MISPELLED

Even if it's just one letter. This can be very difficult to detect.

DIFFERENT EMAIL ADDRESSES

Hover over the sender's email address or move to spam. It may show a different address than the one next to "from."

LOTS OF URGENCY!!!

An immediate cause of concern is a phrase or lots of phrases that conveys a sense of urgency: "Do this immediately."
